WALKING OUR TALK? DEVELOPING, SUPPORTING AND NURTURING EARLY CAREER ACADEMICS

Seminar Overview

Professional development and support is pivotal to the progress of Early Career Academics (ECAs) in their everyday lives at Higher Education Institutions. "How are Early Career Academics or 'new scholars' supported at UKZN?" and "What are some of the challenges that affect the professional development of ECAs?" These are some of the questions that underpinned the collective self-study research of UKZN ECAs from diverse Disciplines and Colleges.

The purpose of this Seminar is to share some of the intentions and tensions of ECAs as they reflect on their lived experiences as university academics.

The Seminar will highlight:

- ⇒ Issues of concern to ECAs.
- ⇒ A need for sustainable growth for ECAs.
- ⇒ Importance of collective processes for ECAs.
- ⇒ A need for healthy working conditions for ECAs.
- ⇒ The necessity of an ECA Policy.
