

The UKZN Teaching & Learning Office (UTLO)

Cordially invites academic staff to a

Mentorship Development Workshop

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

In the fourth phase of the Mentorship programme, the facilitators will focus on how the 4 quadrants of the Mentorship wheel intersect, and their implications for PERSONAL and PROFESSIONAL development trajectories.

Time	Presenter/s	Theme
9:00 to 9:30	Michael Samuel	Orientation and contextualisation
9:30 to 10:30	Nyna Amin & Anne Stark	Exploring career trajectories and their associated impediments
10:30 to	Coffee Break
10:45 to	Nyna & Anne	Continuation: Exploring career trajectories
11:30 to 12:30	Shenuka Singh	Mentor-mentee experiences within the context of research and T & L. Real-life successes and challenges
12:30 to 13:30	Michael Samuel	Wrap-up and evaluation

Workshop Details

DATE: Tuesday, 18 September 2018

TIME: 09h00 - 13h30

VENUE: Seminar Room 5, Govan Mbeki building, Westville Campus.

RSVP Essential by Monday, 10 September 2018

RSVP to: <https://goo.gl/forms/C2chp1ZSxZh5Iyim2>

Funded by the University Capacity Development Grant