

17 August 2021

COMMUNIQUÉ FROM THE OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY VICE-CHANCELLOR: TEACHING AND LEARNING

UKZN E-LEARNING ONLINE SYMPOSIUM 2021: STUDENT ESSAY WINNERS

Dear Staff and Students

In June 2021, the DVC of Teaching and Learning invited UKZN Students to participate in the UKZN e-Learning Student Essay Competition titled: Student Experiences with E/Online Learning at UKZN: Challenges, opportunities and lessons learnt.

Out of 75 essays received, the Committee selected three (3) best essays, after three phases of review. Each winner will receive a tablet, and their essays will be presented at the UKZN E-Learning Symposium

The winners are:

- Simangaliso Madondo from the College of Law and Management Studies
- Nelson Nkunda from the College of Law and Management Studies
- Sizwe Sidaza from the College of Humanities

UTLO would like to congratulate the winners and take this opportunity to thank all those who entered the competition.

Don't forget to Register for UKZN e-Learning Online Symposium 2021

Date: Tuesday, 21 September 2021

Time: 08h00 – 16h00

Zoom Registration: Click Here

Website Details: UKZN E-learning Symposium Page

Queries can be directed to: utlo@ukzn.ac.za

Issued by

Professor Sandile Phinda Songca

Deputy Vice-Chancellor: Teaching and Learning